CONVOCATION

Undergraduate

June 2024

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to the Graduating Classes of 2024

While convocation is the formal ceremony for the conferral of degrees, diplomas, and certificates that is steeped in hundreds of years of academic traditions, it's also a time for celebration and, as you know, we do things a bit differently at Trent.

At Trent University, convocation is a lot of fun. Paired with the ornate regalia, you might notice some funky footwear. In keeping with the Trent Experience, our convocation ceremonies are authentic, intimate, and personalized. While the Chancellor presides over the official proceedings with formal academic language, cheering for the grads as they cross the stage is also encouraged.

The heart of convocation, however, is the celebration of every student's hard-earned academic accomplishment. We're here to mark this significant milestone in your journey as you prepare for the next stage of your life and career.

Together with your friends and family, we join with the entire Trent University community in congratulating you on your remarkable success.

As you embark on your future, we wish you the best in pursuing new goals and reaching even greater milestones. Remember to stay in touch!

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENTS

The most prestigious award conferred by Trent University is the honorary degree. It is granted to those individuals who have made extraordinary academic or social contributions to Canada or internationally, particularly in fields of relevance to Trent University or the wider regional community. Doctor of Laws (LL.D.) recognizes contributions in scholarly or professional achievement, or public or community service.

Dr. Audrey Kobayashi

Honorary Doctorate of Laws

Wednesday, June 5, 2024 at 2:00 p.m. on Peterborough Campus

Dr. Kobayashi is a globally recognized scholar of feminist geography, gender studies, and social justice whose work has significantly challenged the way academics think about equity. Through more than 40 years of writing and research, teaching and mentorship, activism and advocacy, policy and public engagement, Dr. Kobayashi has advanced interdisciplinary knowledge about race, gender, class, ability, and identity. As author and editor of foundational publications, she has shaped key academic and public policy discussions about racism and anti-racism in Canada.

Throughout her career, Dr. Kobayashi has served as a Fulbright Fellow at the Migration Policy Institute in Washington, DC, held prestigious visiting fellowships worldwide, and received recognition for her outstanding contributions to the National Association of Japanese Canadians.

Harvey McCue (Waubegeshig) C.M. '66

Honorary Doctorate of Laws

Thursday, June 6, 2024 at 2:00 p.m. on Peterborough Campus

Harvey McCue is a distinguished Trent University alumnus and Board of Governors emeritus who made history in 1969 by co-founding Trent's Indigenous Studies department – the first of its kind in Canada. He served as the first acting chair of what was then known as the Indian Eskimo Studies program.

A member of the Order of Canada, McCue is celebrated for a 40-year career as a scholar, administrator, and leader who widely shares his expertise in Indigenous self-government.

Since 1995, McCue has worked in Ottawa as a highly regarded consultant. He has also made significant contributions to Indigenous educational issues by serving on federal task forces and advising Trent University on the development of its Indigenous Bachelor of Education program.

You'll Always Have a Home at Trent

Now that you've graduated, it's not goodbye but 'see you soon!'

We'll be keeping in touch by sending Alumni newsletters and magazines, informing you of cool perks and benefits, inviting you to special events, and sharing your stories on our Alumni website and social media.

You have a lot to gain and a lot to give to your alumni association. Stay connected and meet experienced alumni who are keen to offer mentorship and networking opportunities. And soon, the Alumni team will be looking for you to share your Life After Trent professional experience with students and recent grads.

When you have news (maybe you are tackling climate-change research, have won an award, or are returning to campus to get married!), you can always let us know by emailing alumni@trentu.ca and we can share your story with your Alumni Family, now 66,000 strong.

In the years to come, there will be many ways to stay in touch. But wherever life takes you, please know that you'll always have a home at Trent.
