

Project title	Output (investment of research security funds)	Performance objective	Performance indicator	Target outcome	Reported Outcome
Implementation of the National Security Guidelines for Research Partnerships via Inter-institutional Collaboration	$18,335 invested in collaborative resources to aid in the implementation of the NSGRP	Assist in coordinating research security across all institutions by pooling resources	Aid in identifying and mitigating research security risks	Utilize a collaborative approach and mitigate risks to research security (e.g. physical, cyber, partnerships, intellectual property, people)	Determination was made that an in-house research security expert is required. Budget has been allocated to complement Research Security funding to create a new position with research security as a key focus.